

National Severe Weather Warning Service

Chief Forecasters Assessment

Showers, falling as rain or hail, but as sleet or snow on some higher ground, will occur at times through Wednesday and overnight into Thursday morning. The extent of ice will vary across the area with inland areas most prone whilst north facing coasts are less likely to be affected.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Ice

Valid from 18:00 on Wed, 29th Nov 2017 until 10:00 on Thu, 30th Nov 2017

Icy patches are likely to develop on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths or where showers cause wash off on treated roads.
